Christian higher education has always been a major concern and integral part of Baptist life in North Carolina. Consequently, over the years, both University and church have stood as partners. The University plays an important role in the mission of the church and the mission of the Kingdom of God on Earth.

The University is Christian-oriented but not sectarian. Each year, many religious denominations and faiths are represented on campus. However, it is expected that all those who attend the University will be sympathetic to its stated purposes.

Campbell, as a Baptist university, is committed to teaching students to think with Christian values as their basic guidelines. Accordingly, it is incumbent upon the University to provide its students with an honor code that, in its observance, makes more nearly possible an environment whereby the student can grow spiritually and morally, as well as intellectually.

To perpetuate these Christian ideals and principles, it is the responsibility of each student to maintain a high standard of personal behavior. Thus, once a student matriculates at Campbell University, he/she should demonstrate a willingness to abide by the following Honor Code while a member of the student body.

Student Handbook

The Student Handbook is published annually upon request and is also available on the University’s web site. It is reviewed and approved by the Administration and represents the official policies, regulations and procedures relating to student housing, student support services, student conduct, and the University disciplinary system. The handbook also contains official policies relating to Campus Safety. (When a student is admitted to Campbell University, the student becomes responsible for knowing and abiding by all rules and regulations of the University as published in the University Bulletin and the Student Handbook.)
University policy is the responsibility of the Administrative structure, developing from the Board of Trustees through the University President and the Cabinet. Such policies as appear in the current edition of the handbook reflect approval by the Administration, up to and including the Board of Trustees as appropriate. Policy making and amending is by its nature a fluid process, on-going to secure institutional health; and as such, the most recently adopted or amended policies may not appear in previous or current University documents. New policy becomes effective from the point it is established. Should errors in this handbook lead to any inconsistency with the University Bulletin, the latter shall take precedence.

Obtaining a Camel Card
In order to obtain a Camel Card, a student must be an accepted applicant or registered student and present valid picture identification. Staff members must be currently employed with Campbell University and show valid picture identification. Valid picture identification includes valid driver’s license, state identification cards, and passports.

Camel Cards are made in the Office of Student Life located in the Wallace Student Center during normal university business hours. However, Camel Cards will be made at various locations on campus during orientation, registration, and other peak periods. Students and guests will be notified of these locations during these times.

Unused Funds
The Camel Card declining balance deposits are interchangeable through all semesters; however, the Business Office will automatically transfer all unused funds from the Camel Cards to the Student Accounts in late April of each year to allow for system reconciliation and to ensure all graduating seniors are reimbursed any unused portion. If the transfer of funds from the Camel Card to the Student Account creates a credit balance on the Student Account; the student may request a refund. Students are encouraged to verify book costs prior to depositing funds onto the Camel Card. Exceptions will be considered for students withdrawing from the University.

Difference in Camel Card “Campbell Bucks” and “Creek Bucks”
There are two types of Camel Card stored value funds.

Campbell Bucks: Are associated with meal plan purchases and are redeemable at all on-campus dining locations. These funds are not cumulative from semester to semester; it’s “use or lose” for each semester.

Creek Bucks: Are created when funds are deposited on the card and are redeemable at the Campbell University bookstore, vending, and all on-campus dining locations. Balances carry forward as long as actively enrolled or employed at Campbell University.

Lost or Stolen Card
Cardholder’s must notify the Campbell University Office of Student Life if their Camel Card is lost or stolen. Their office is located in the Wallace Student Center. Students may also go to the Blackboard System and report the card lost or stolen. Cardholder’s must report the loss within one (1) university business day of the loss. Upon notification, the lost or stolen card will be deactivated and a new card issued.

Liability of a Cardholder will not exceed fifty dollars ($50.00) for unauthorized transactions if the loss is reported within one (1) university business day of the actual loss. If a lost or stolen card is not reported within one (1) university business day, the Cardholder will assume liability for unauthorized transactions. Campbell University will have no liability if the lost or stolen card is not reported within one (1) university business day of the loss or theft.

Costs (Card Replacement, Fees, and Miscellaneous Charges)
Cardholder’s will be charged for all replacement cards. A new card will be issued at no charge to a Cardholder if the magnetic strip will no longer work and/or if the card is older than four (4) years. If a Cardholder’s status as either a student or staff changes; or if the Cardholder’s name changes, a new card will be issued without charge. A new card will only be issued for students and staff when the change has been made effective at the appropriate office.

The following fees will apply to all cardholders with exception of provisions stated in the items above:

Code of Honor
The Code of Honor of Campbell University arises directly out of the institution’s Statement of Purpose.

The basic principles which guide the development of Christian character and govern Christian behavior are to be found in the Scriptures. Moral law is the gift of God and is fully revealed in the teachings of Jesus Christ.

The student, by virtue of his enrollment, agrees to abide by the rules and moral precepts which govern the University community. Because of the University’s commitment to the lordship of Christ over every area of life, wholehearted obedience to moral law as set forth in the Old and New Testaments and exemplified in the life of Christ applies to every member of the University community, regardless of position.

While the Bible does not provide specific teaching regarding all social practices, its emphasis on general principles is unmistakable, particularly in circumstances where lack of self-restraint would be harmful or offensive to others. Out of these general principles come certain concrete expectations which should be viewed not negatively but as practical guidelines for conduct and for a productive way of life;

1. To uphold at all times and in all places, both on and off campus, the University’s Mission Statement.
2. To protect the personal rights of others, refraining from any physical or verbal abuse and exemplifying courtesy, consideration, and respect.
3. To protect the property rights of others from theft, damage, or misuse.
4. To adhere to all university policies and regulations, including the rules governing the use of facilities, housing on and off the campus, and campus organizations.
5. To obey, respect, and uphold the law of the land.
6. To refrain from the possession, use, or distribution of alcoholic beverages and illegal drugs/controlled substances.
7. To maintain a standard of dress; which ensures neatness, cleanliness, and appropriateness of attire.
8. At all times, to exhibit good taste, decency, and restraint, refraining from disorderly conduct or indecent, profane, or obscene expression.
9. To be honest in all behavior, never cheating, plagiarizing, or knowingly giving false information.
10. To abstain from any sexual relations outside the bonds of marriage.
11. To exemplify high principles of honor, integrity, and morality and to help others fulfill their obligations under this code.

If you do not complete the waiver, nor do not sign up for insurance by the semester deadline dates you will be automatically enrolled in the Campbell University policy and your student account will be charged accordingly.
