INTERCOLLEGIATE JURIED EXHIBITION

PROSPECTUS

As part of this year’s Big South Undergraduate Research and Creative Works Conference April 10-April 11, 2015, Campbell University will be hosting an Intercollegiate Juried Exhibition in the E. P. Sauls Gallery, Taylor Bott Rogers Fine Arts Building, March 18-April 11, 2015. With the nature of some research being in the creative fields of art and design, this exhibition is open to all work that is visual, both 2-D and 3-D. Regretfully, we cannot accommodate film, video, or other time-based work.

Digital Entries due: Jan. 16
Notification to students of acceptance: Feb. 2
Accepted work due: week of Feb. 23 – 27
Show opens: March 18
Reception: April 10, 6pm – 7:30pm, E. P. Sauls Gallery, Taylor Bott Rogers Fine Arts Building
Pick up of artwork: April 11, 3:30pm to 5:30pm.

ELIGIBILITY

Entries must be original works in any art or design media, 2-D or 3-D and completed within the past 18 months, conceived and created by the artist submitting the work.

Students may submit up to 3 works.

JUROR

Eric Lawing received a B.A. in Art from UNCW in 1979, and a M.F.A. from UNCG with a minor in art history in 1985. After graduating he became curator of collections at Weatherspoon Art Museum at UNCG and worked there until 1990. He began teaching at UNCW in 1996 and continues to enjoy the process in 2009.

Lawing has exhibited regularly since graduate school and was awarded a North Carolina Arts Fellowship in 1998, and exhibited in numerous art museum group shows including Weatherspoon Art Museum’s Art on Paper, and the North Carolina Art Museum’s North Carolina Artists Exhibition, and solo exhibitions at St. John’s Art Museum in Wilmington and the Greenville Museum of Art in Greenville, NC. Most recently he was included in a grand opening and year-long exhibition of large works by North Carolina artists, The Big Picture, at the new Raleigh Convention Center.
Responsibilities and Disclaimers

Work sent to the gallery must be installation ready. If specific installation materials are needed, this information should be included with the original entry, in the body of the email, and those materials should be included with the shipped work with clear instructions for installation.

The gallery reserves the right to reject any artwork due to inadequate preparation for installation or for potential security or public safety issues. It is the responsibility of the artist to ship and insure (if desired) work to and from the gallery. Work must be packed in reusable containers. Clear shipping instructions must be included, as well as shipping labels for return shipping back to the artist, FedEx or UPS account number or prepaid USPS postage or prepaid label from FedEx or UPS. The show ends at 3:00 on April 11, 2015, and hand pick up of work is available for those that are attending the conference and would like to pick up the work in person between 3:30 and 5:30 that day. If work is not to be picked up, it must have the prepaid label. If an individual artist would like someone else attending the conference to pick up the work, prior arrangements must be made and include a written statement stating who is to pick up the work with a release given to the gallery to do so.

Submissions that are accepted for the exhibition must be registered for the conference and must have paid the $100 registration fee.

Insurance

The E. P. Sauls Art Gallery will take every reasonable precaution to prevent loss of or damage to work that is sent to us, but will not be responsible for any loss or damage. Artists must provide their own insurance for shipping. Campbell University holds insurance for accepted works for the duration of the show. Insurance value of each work must be included on the entry form. Works brought before or left after the designated dates are NOT covered by insurance. Works left for over 15 days after the pick up date become the property of the E. P. Sauls Art Gallery.

Awards and Reception

Awards will be presented at the reception from 6:00-7:30 on April 10, 2015. Awards include: Best of Show ($150) and three Juror’s Choice Awards ($75 each) will be chosen. In the event that an award recipient is not present at the reception, the award will be mailed to the address listed on the entry form.

Submissions accepted for the exhibition must be registered for the conference.
