2016 New Student Orientation Leader
Position Description

Campbell University Orientation Leaders (OLs) are undergraduate student leaders selected to welcome incoming students and their families to campus during summer orientation. The Orientation Leader position assists both the Undergraduate Admissions Office and Department of Student Life by guiding a group of new students through the orientation program. OLs will also assist in managing orientation event logistics, providing valuable insight on campus resources, and addressing students’ and families’ questions.

The OL position provides Campbell students with an opportunity to serve the community, develop leadership skills, meet other passionate student leaders, and welcome the newest members of the University to the Creek.

2016 New Student Orientation occurs June 24-25 and July 8-9. OLs are expected to serve during both orientation sessions as well as participate in all training sessions.

Application
Please complete the online application form by March 18, 2016 at 5:00 pm.

Group Interviews
After submitting an online application, candidates will be contacted to confirm a group interview time. Group interviews will take place March 28, 29, and 31. Candidates will receive group interview assignments by March 22.

Selection Criteria
Applicants must:
- Have a minimum 2.75 cumulative GPA
- Display leadership and involvement experience as well as familiarity with campus resources
- Exhibit a commitment to Campbell University and the orientation program as a whole
- Be in good judicial standing at the University
- Participate in all designated trainings and orientation sessions
- Successfully complete the written application and a group interview session

Notification
Applicants will be notified of their selection status by April 4.

Training
Training for the Orientation Leader position is mandatory. OLs are expected to participate in the following training sessions; alternate accommodations may be arranged for time conflicts with academic classes only.
- Tuesday, April 19, 6:00-9:00 pm
- Thursday, June 23, 10:00 am-6:00 pm
- Thursday, July 7, 7:00-8:00 pm

Compensation
This position is a volunteer leadership position. OLs will receive a t-shirt and other Campbell swag, as well as receive complimentary housing and meals during the orientation sessions.