Wrapping Up Fall 2010

For those of us on campus, it is hard to believe that the fall semester is coming to an end. Your Campbell student has almost completed this semester and will certainly be ready for a well deserved semester break. We know that you are looking forward to having them back at home for a while to reconnect.

Listed to the right are a few dates you might want to keep in mind.

Spring Registration
If your student has not registered for classes for the Spring 2011 semester, please advise them to see their academic advisor and schedule a time to register. The last day to register for Spring classes is Friday, November 12, 2010. After that time, students will have to register when they return to campus in January & class space may be limited.

Residence Halls
Students that live on campus will need to move out of their Residence Hall Room by Friday, December 10th at 5:00 p.m. unless they apply for an Extended Stay through the Residence Life Office.

Preparing for Spring 2011

Students return to campus the second week of January to begin the Spring 2011 semester. Residence Halls open on Sunday, January 9th, Classes begin Wednesday, January 12th.

Spring Schedule
Students will need to confirm their spring class schedules on-line through Web Access by Monday, December 13, 2010 (This is very important! Schedules that are not confirmed will be deleted!!!)

Text Books
Order text books early to ensure the best selection. (See Barnes & Noble Bookstore link on Campbell’s Web Site)

Drop/Add
Students needing to drop a class from their schedule, need to do so by Friday, February 4th to avoid penalties.

Classes can be added through Wednesday, January 19th.

Campus Events
Encourage students to pick up a Student Activities Calendar & Athletic Schedule Card so they will know what is happening on campus throughout the Spring!

If you know someone who would enjoy this newsletter, ask them to send us an email (jbrown@campbell.edu) & we’ll add them to the parent database.

The North Carolina Baptist Scholarship Program is funded by the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina to provide scholarships for students who are members of churches in friendly cooperation with the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina and are enrolled at one of the five universities affiliated with the organization. Campbell University is one of the five affiliated universities. The scholarship helps to cover the cost of tuition, fees, room, board, and supplies.

The application cycle for renewal and first-time applicants for the 2011-2012 academic year will open in January 2011. Students that have been awarded a NC Baptist Scholarship for this academic year must reapply for the 2011-2012 academic year. It is not an automatic renewal.

The minimum qualifications are:
- Acceptance for full-time enrollment in an undergraduate program on the main campus of one of the five affiliated schools. Campbell University is one of the five!
- Have a cumulative grade point average of 2.5 or higher. Incoming freshmen/1st term transfer students do not have to meet the GPA requirement the first year.
- Have a minimum of one year membership in a church that is in friendly cooperation with the Baptist State Convention.
- Submission of a letter of recommendation from church pastor (or their designee) on church letterhead.
- Complete the on-line application.

Additional information is available at the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina’s website at www.ncbaptist.org.

2011-2012 FAFSA

The 2011/2012 FAFSA will be available after January 1st for completion.

Be sure to go to www.FAFSA.GOV once your taxes are completed and submit your FAFSA. Remember, the priority deadline for funding at Campbell University is March 1st.

When it comes to Financial Aid funds......the early bird does get the worm.
