Student Activities

The department of Student Activities provides events, trips, educational experiences, and leadership opportunities for students at Campbell University. The following organizations are part of the department of Student Activities: Campus Activities Board, Student Government Association, and International Student Services.

Campus Activities Board (CAB)
The purpose of the Campbell University Campus Activities Board (CAB) is to provide programs for the students of Campbell University that foster an environment which stimulates social, cultural, multicultural, intellectual, leadership, and recreational skills. These programs represent a variety of topics and genres that meet the needs of the campus community. CAB is responsible for planning dances, concerts, trips and other entertainment events around the campus community.

CAB membership is open to all undergraduate students. Students who desire to hold an executive office (President, Vice-President, Secretary, or Treasurer) must apply for the position in the spring semester and are selected after an interview process with the Director of Student Activities and the Graduate Assistant for Student Activities. Committee Chairs are selected by the selection committee in the spring after an application and interview process, and approved by the Director of Student Activities. Meetings are open to all students and are held on the first Tuesday of each month. Please check the CAB website for time and location. Information regarding CAB can be obtained in the CAB office (ext. 1545) located in the basement of Baldwin Hall, through email at cab@campbell.edu, or the CAB website at: www.campbell.edu/life/student-activities/campus-activities-board

International Student Services
The International Student Admissions Office is responsible for the processing of all applications for non-residents of the United States for admission to the university. Students with visa status should seek the advice of International Admissions relative to matters involving their status with the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) and concerning the policies and procedures involving the validation of academic records and working off campus. For more information, contact International Admissions at ext. 1417.

Once on campus, activities for international students are coordinated by the Department of Student Activities. International Student Services (ISS) offers a wide variety of services to international students at Campbell University. Students are provided with opportunities to participate in events for international students as well as to become acclimated into the University as a whole. There are many activities provided from seminars to culture nights as well as shuttles to Wal-Mart, the DMV, Social Security, etc. ISS also offers informal gatherings and off campus events for students. If you would like more information or want to get involved, please contact the Graduate Assistant for ISS at intlga@campbell.edu or (910) 814-4757.

Inter-Organizational Council (IOC)
IOC is a council made up of a representative of every club and organization on campus. The IOC meetings allow the different clubs and organizations on campus an opportunity to share ideas and to become familiar with the activities planned. IOC also provides rewards for those clubs and organizations that are active and influential in campus life. IOC is chaired by the Vice President of the Student Government Association and is advised by the Director of Student Activities. For more information see the IOC Handbook published by the Office of Student Activities on the Student Activities section of the Campbell University website.

Posting Campus Information
All campus clubs and organizations, University departments and persons or groups outside the campus community must adhere to the policies governing the use of campus bulletin boards, display cases, and the placement of notices on campus. Persons or groups who disregard these provisions may be subject to penalties, and the organization’s approved status may be revoked.

Bulletin boards are available on campus for student use to publicize events. These boards are managed by the Office of Student Activities, and all students must meet existing guidelines before posting information. All fliers and posters must be stamped by the Office of Student Activities before distribution or display on campus.
To use bulletin boards not controlled by the Office of Student Activities, students should consult the appropriate personnel for permission. Students must follow the policies below governing the use of bulletin boards. For more information call the Office of Student Activities at on-campus ext. 1554.

1. All promotional literature or notices must be approved, stamped and dated by the Student Activities Office before posting.
2. For IOC clubs, the completed Activity Clearance Form should be on file in the Student Activities Office.
3. Promotional literature may not be removed or tampered with when placed in appropriate places.
4. Posters, notices, announcements, or other material may not be attached to walls, windows, doors, walks, stairways, the outside buildings, trees, shrubs, or utility poles on campus.
5. Fliers or notices may not be attached to automobiles on campus.
6. Fliers or notices must comply with the individual guidelines of each bulletin board before posting. Bulletin boards controlled by the Office of Student Activities have published guidelines. When using other bulletin boards, the appropriate personnel should be consulted for authorization of use.
7. All posted items should be in accordance with the institution’s Statement of Purpose and Code of Honor found in the Student Handbook.
8. All posted notices must be removed within forty-eight hours after the date of the event.
9. All notices and posters must be secured with push pins or staples. No glue, nails, or tacks may be used. Restrict use of push pins and staples to bulletin board surfaces only.

Student Government Association (SGA)

Campbell University's SGA Members are elected by the student body. Sophomores, juniors, seniors, and the Executive Council are elected in the spring semester proceeding the year of service. Freshmen are elected in the beginning of the fall semester of the year of service. Meetings are open to all students and are noted on the University calendar. Information regarding the Campbell University SGA can be obtained in the SGA office (on-campus ext. 1552) located in the basement of Baldwin Hall or by email at sga@campbell.edu.

The Student Government Association functions as a forum through which students may express their opinions and concerns on matters which affect them. Such expressions are reviewed by the Student Life Committee when passed in the form of resolutions by the Student Congress.

The Student Life Committee may approve or disapprove the resolutions or return them to the Student Congress for further consideration. Approved resolutions, together with the recommendations of the Committee, are forwarded to the appropriate offices. These offices may choose to act or not to act upon the Committee's recommendations.
